

Reading Guide:
World War I, Chapter 27
Russian In Revolution, Chapter 28

All reading should have notes in either Cornell format or other structured format detailed in your notebook. These will be checked in either during the unit or on the day of the test. Please stay up to date with your readings.

Homework for the night of:	Heath:	Spielvogel:
5/15/12	27.1	710-713; 718-720
5/16/12	27.2	27.2
5/17/12	27.3	27.3
5/18/12	27.4	744-747
5/21/12	28.3	28.3
5/22/12	28.4	28.4
5/24/12	Test on Chapters 27, 28	World War 1 test

Notebook/homework check for the end of the chapter should include the following:

1. Chapter 27 notes: sections 1-4 (20 points)
2. Chapter 28: sections 3 AND 4 (10 points)
4. Chapter 27 Vocabulary worksheet (10 points)
5. Chapter 28 Vocabulary worksheet (10 points)
6. Critical Thinking: Russian Revolution (5 points)
7. Viewing Guide (10 points)
8. Maps (10 points)
9. Timeline (5 points)

* Total points for binder check = 80

Review for Test:

Terms	Concepts:
entente annex militarism ultimatum mobilize neutrality aggressor total war reasoning self-determination propaganda convoy abdicate armistice mandate reparations command economy totalitarian state	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● analyze the arms race between the Great Powers● Describe the growth of militarism in prewar Europe● analyze Austria's options in response to the assassination of Franz Ferdinand● Explain how the other Great Powers were drawn into war● explain why France and Britain wanted to punish Germany● list and discuss the main terms of the Treaty of Versailles● explain what leads up to World War I● explain the role of imperialism in WW1● Explain the impacts of WW1 and effects